

Parents/Guardians Say...

1

The majority of respondents have positive perceptions about their child's school; especially regarding safety and a welcoming environment.

80% believe that there is effective communication from their child's school

80% feel like valued partners in their child's school

51% have heard of formal learning opportunities to support their child's learning

2

Overall, respondents feel the HDSB school environment is inclusive, respectful and safe.

90%

agree that their child feels safe at school

82%

agree that individual differences and diversity are honoured and valued

80%

agree that the school ensures opportunities for students to get involved

3

Most respondents believe the frequency of communication with their child's school is appropriate.

97% of parents say they value email as a means to communicate/engage

64% say they like to engage with their child's school in-person

4

83%

of parents agree that their child has opportunities to identify areas of strength and growth.

5

Confidence in the HDSB to provide high quality education is high.

82% of parents feel that the school is delivering a quality education to students

6

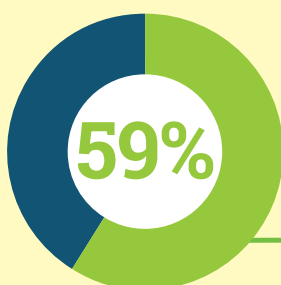

73%

of parents agree that technology is used effectively for learning in school.

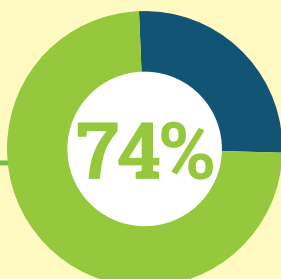

7

There was general agreement among respondents about the value, rationale and meaningfulness of homework.

Elementary parents feel the amount of homework is appropriate

Secondary parents feel the amount of homework is appropriate

8

Volunteering in 2017-2018

36%

have volunteered in elementary schools

15%

have volunteered in secondary schools