

IN 2018-2019 Students Say...

1

Students report a high sense of equity, inclusiveness and diversity in their schools

65% of respondents feel students treat each other with respect at their school

3

Students report that their teacher knows them as learners

70% feel that their teachers understand the way they learn and use different learning strategies

58% indicate that their teachers ask them about their lives outside of school

2

91% report they know how they learn best

74% indicate they feel comfortable asking their teacher for help

4

Students generally express a high level of overall well-being

65% report their overall well-being as "good" or "excellent"

57% report they "always" or "often" get 8-10 hours of sleep

5

Friendships are strong at HDSB schools

Students see themselves as empathetic and helpful to others, and collaborating well with others

91% agree that they try to help others in need

89% think about how their actions impact others

67% feel like they "always" or "often" fit in/belong

6

Student engagement is important

89% of students agree that their school promotes opportunities for all students to get involved